
the product is detection and counting: one node per body, an ordinal counted from the anchor; the 27-level posterior feeds that count, never the answer.