
Two independent cohorts, one effect size

Lumbosacral and thoracolumbar border anomalies co-occur about four times more than chance in both cohorts. The VerSe interval excludes one; CTSP's touches it (both-cell of two).

VerSe is enriched for pathology: its base rates must not be quoted as prevalence, and the pooled OR across cohorts (≈13) is Simpson's paradox and is not reported.